Web 2.0 tools have now replaced, in many cases, the software applications that used to be purchased by the district and distributed to student computers. In keeping with federal rules and regulations regarding protection and privacy of personal information, I would like to let you know of a Web 2.0 tool I plan to use, and ask that you give your consent for your child to use this site by signing at the bottom of this document. Please know that Web 2.0 tools have been subjected to a screening process before being approved for use in classrooms, and that students are only directed to sites that are age and subject appropriate with no, or minimal, advertising. We carefully check the Terms of Service and Privacy Policy of the sites. We ask that you do the same. If available and possible, education portals of the sites are used.
